

Fire Jersey CIA aide for marrying alien

CPYRGHT

By TOM BUCHANAN

Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 14—A South Orange resident, employed as an intelligence officer for the government's top-secret Central Intelligence Agency, has been notified of his dismissal for having recently married a non-citizen Irish immigrant, it was disclosed today.

Rep. Hugh J. Addonizio of Newark disclosed the CIA's action after he asked the agency's director, Allan Dulles, for an explanation of what the congressman said was a "completely unwarranted" decision.

The congressman said the CIA gave Juan Ryan 90 days in which to find another job because his marriage to a non-citizen a month ago was against the agency's policy.

But Addonizio added that the CIA had approved the marriage before it had taken place and after an intensive investigation of Mrs. Ryan clearly shown she was not a security risk.

Ryan, whose permanent residence is 471 Center St., South Orange, now lives with his wife in nearby Alexandria, Va. He has been in the agency's junior officer training program since last August and has expressed a desire to remain there.

His wife emigrated from Ireland two years ago, after having been admitted for permanent residence here under regular immigration procedure. Before the wedding, security agents of the CIA made an investigation of her background and recommended that the marriage be approved.

Addonizio added that the dismissal is not based on Mrs. Ryan being a security risk in any way, but solely because she is not a citizen although she has been lawfully admitted to the United States.

In his letter to Dulles, Ad-

Juan Ryan

warranted, and I am at a loss to understand it."

"If this is the way the agency's policy is going to work," Addonizio said, "then it's time it was changed. There is no reason on the basis of the evidence to subject the Ryans to a hardship brought on by dismissal from his job."

donizio said "it seems to me the decision is completely un-